Reporting and Analytics

Hiring Data Warehouse

Recently, functionality was added to the USA Staffing interface to enable the deletion of certain reviews (e.g., position description reviews) that have not been sent out to reviewers. For additional details about this capability, review the USA Staffing Production Release Notes for release 13.9

(https://help.usastaffing.gov/ResourceCenter/images/f/fd/Production_Release_13.9_Notes.pdf).

In support of the ability for certain reviews to be deleted from the USA Staffing interface, the associated tables in the Hiring Data Warehouse have been updated to include fields to identify when a review has been deleted and to exclude deleted reviews from appearing in reports.
