Applicant List Survey Results

Maria Ahmad

Applicant List Survey

- One of our goals for FY23 is to improve the usability and design of the applicant list area of USA Staffing.
- Conducted several one-on-one interviews with HR specialists to gain initial insights, and designed survey to help obtain broader feedback.
- Survey was available through the Feedback Opportunities icon in USA Staffing to all HR users for a week in early November 2022.
- Intended to better understand how HR users interact with applicant lists in USA Staffing and obtain feedback used to inform future improvements.
- Included 36 questions, with a mix of multiple choice, comment textbox, and ranked choice response options.

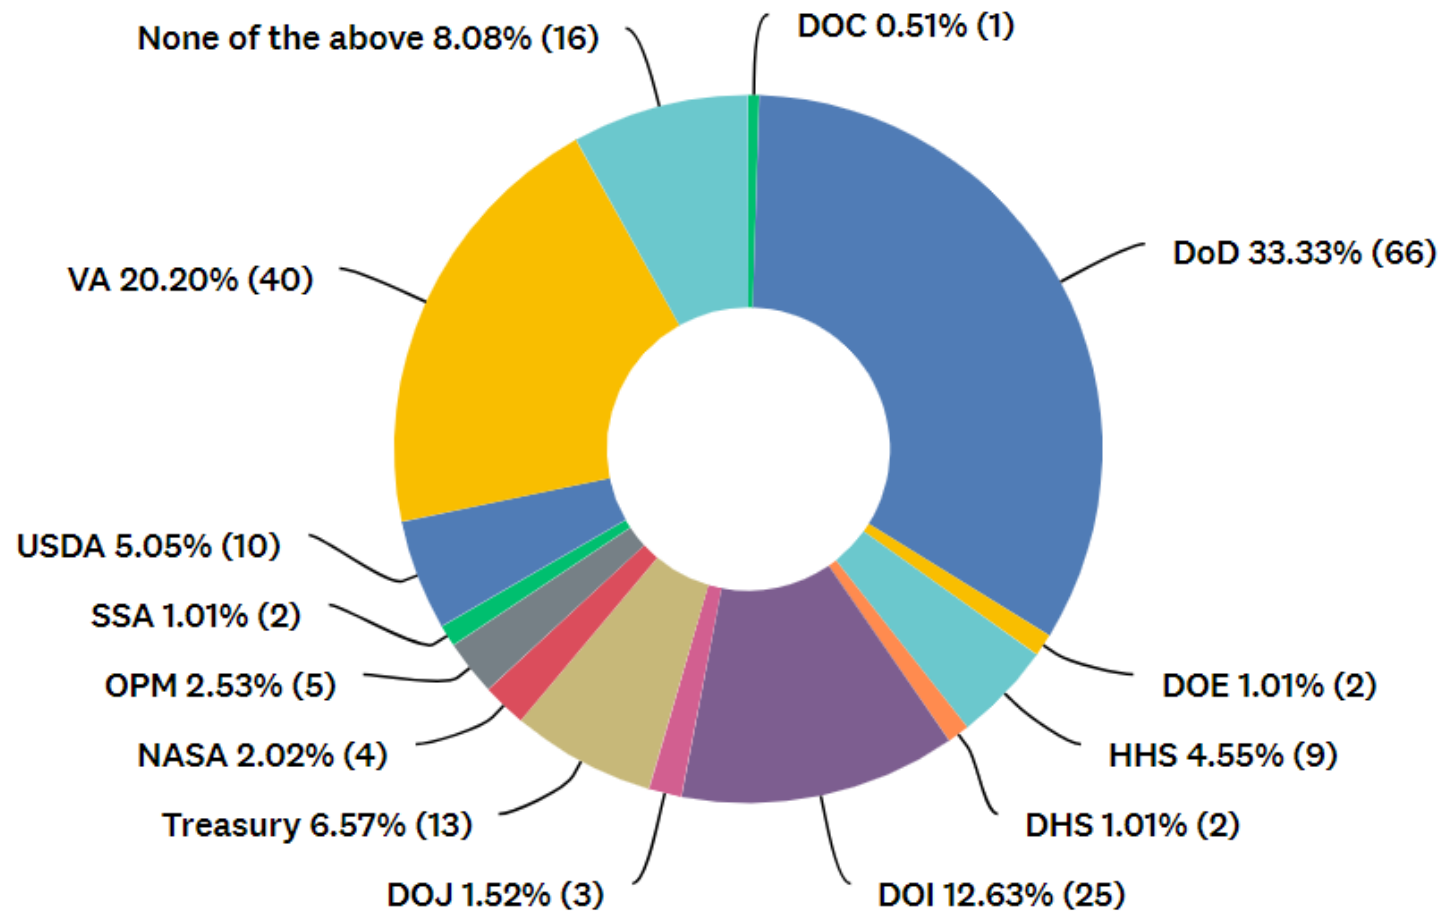

Applicant List Survey Sections

- Participant Experience – who's taking the survey, what's their level of experience working with applicant lists in USA Staffing (screening questions)
- Applicant List Filters – how are filters being used, which filters are most useful, how might the filtering process be improved
- Reviewing Applications – how and where are applicants reviewed, what information is most helpful when reviewing applicants from a list
- Feedback on Enhancements – how useful would several potential enhancements be (copying a saved list, retaining a saved list, pagination configuration)
- Feedback on Interface – how useful are mass action options, how should locations be displayed, should ineligible eligibilities be displayed on a list, what mistakes are people making repeatedly

Survey Participants by Agency

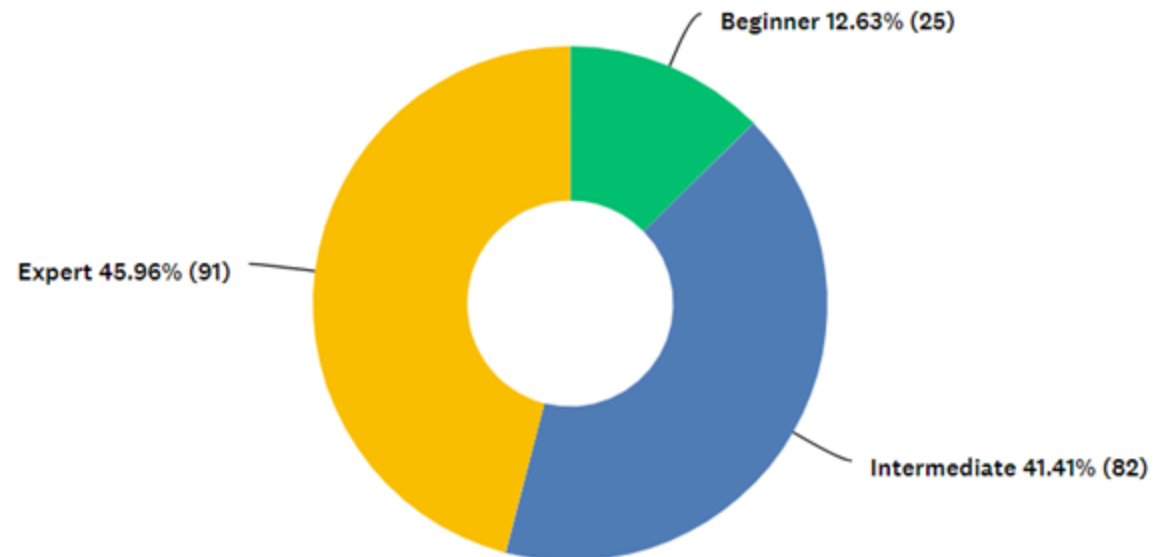

HR Experience

USA Staffing Experience

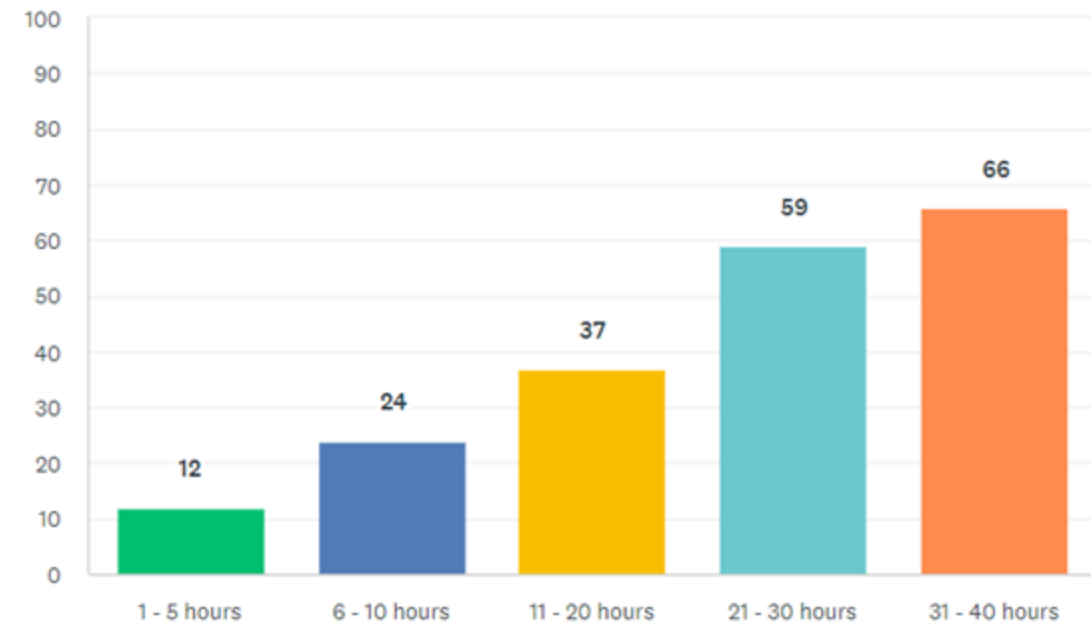

How would you classify your experience level with USA Staffing?

Answered: 198 Skipped: 0

How many hours a week do you use USA Staffing?

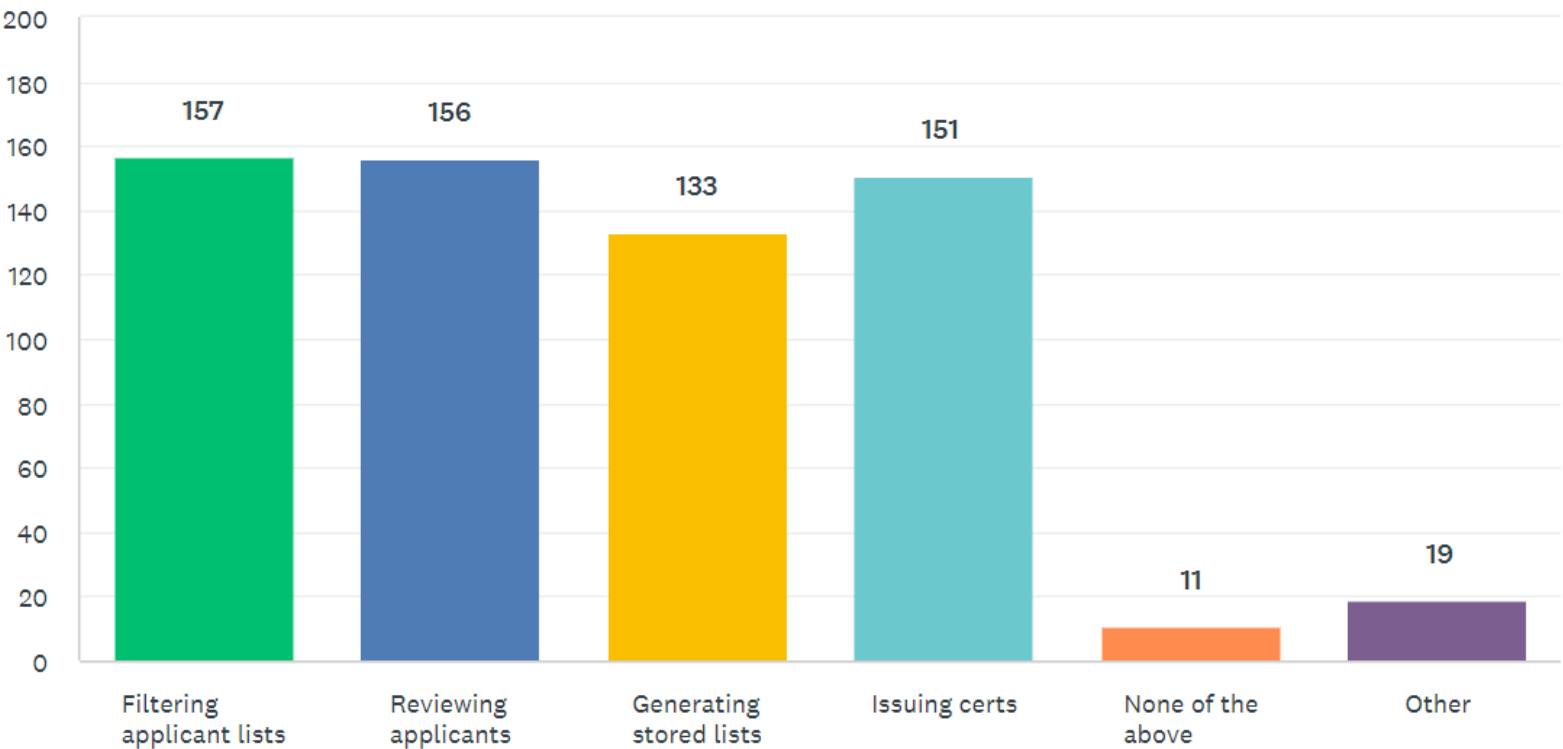

Answered: 198 Skipped: 0

Applicant List Experience

Which of the following tasks related to applicant lists do you perform in USA Staffing?

Answered: 183 Skipped: 15

Participant Summary

- 198 participants started, and 100 completed the entire survey
 - Drop-off rate attributed to screening questions (participants who indicated they're not HR users, or don't use applicant lists) as well as survey length
- Overall, we had a very good mix of participants from different agencies, with different levels of experience in USA Staffing
- Participants were anonymous, but those who volunteered their email addresses were invited to participate in the applicant list workgroup

- Some applicant list filters are used more than others
- Advanced filter options are not as useful for most users
- Survey data from these questions used to inform decisions about:
 - The order in which filters should be displayed
 - Which filters should be expanded/collapsed by default

Filtering Comments Summary

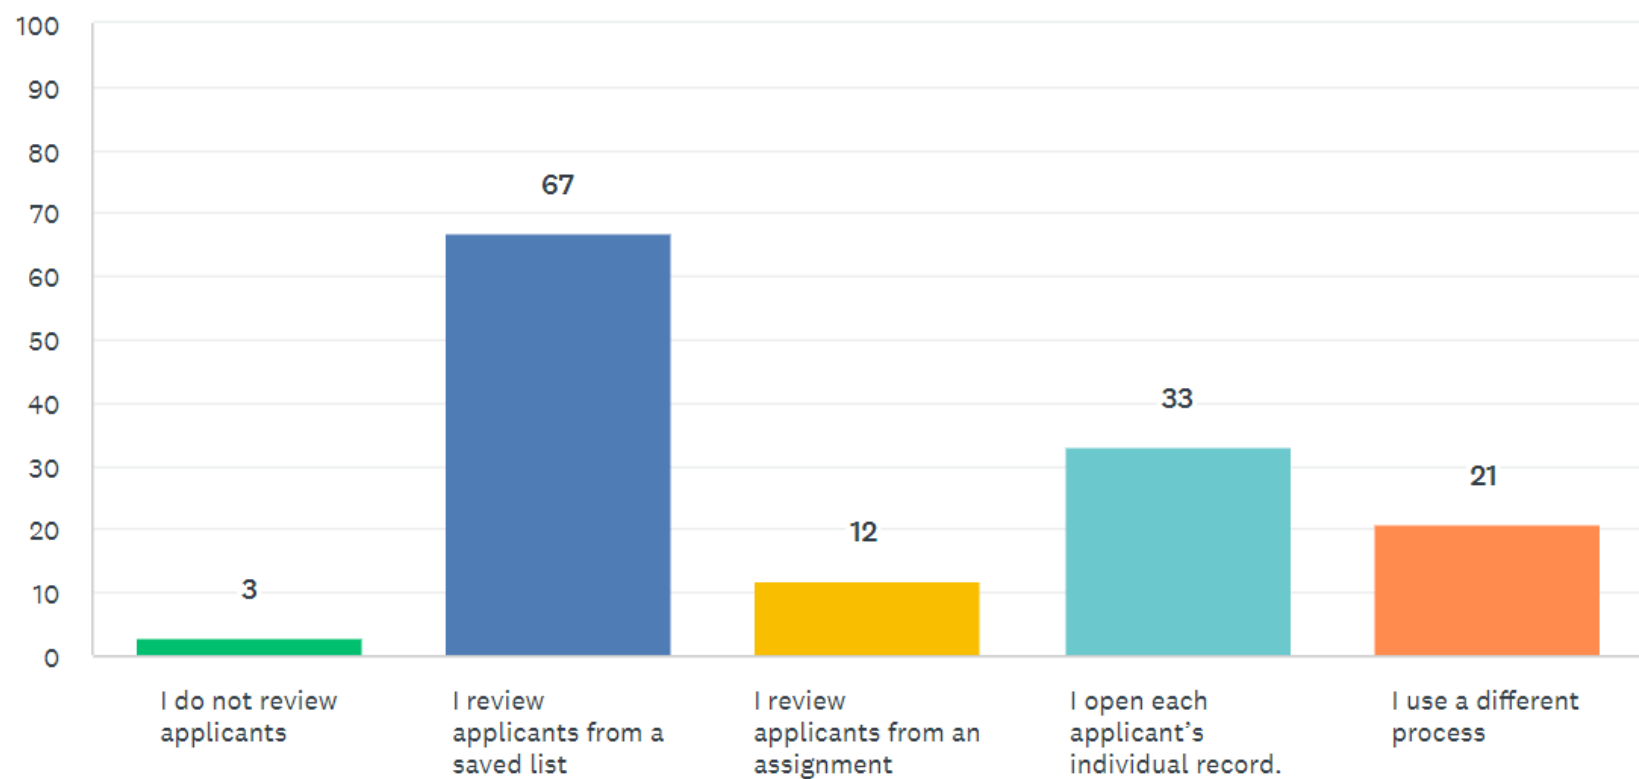

- Participants provided thoughtful feedback and suggestions to improve filtering, including:
 - Making it easier to select a filter option by clicking on the text for the option, not just the little checkbox
 - Bundling the veterans' preference options so that you can select all vets with one click
 - Presetting the CTAP/ICTAP well qualified cutoff score
 - Bundling eligibilities into competitive and non-competitive

Reviewing Applicants

Where do you review applicants?

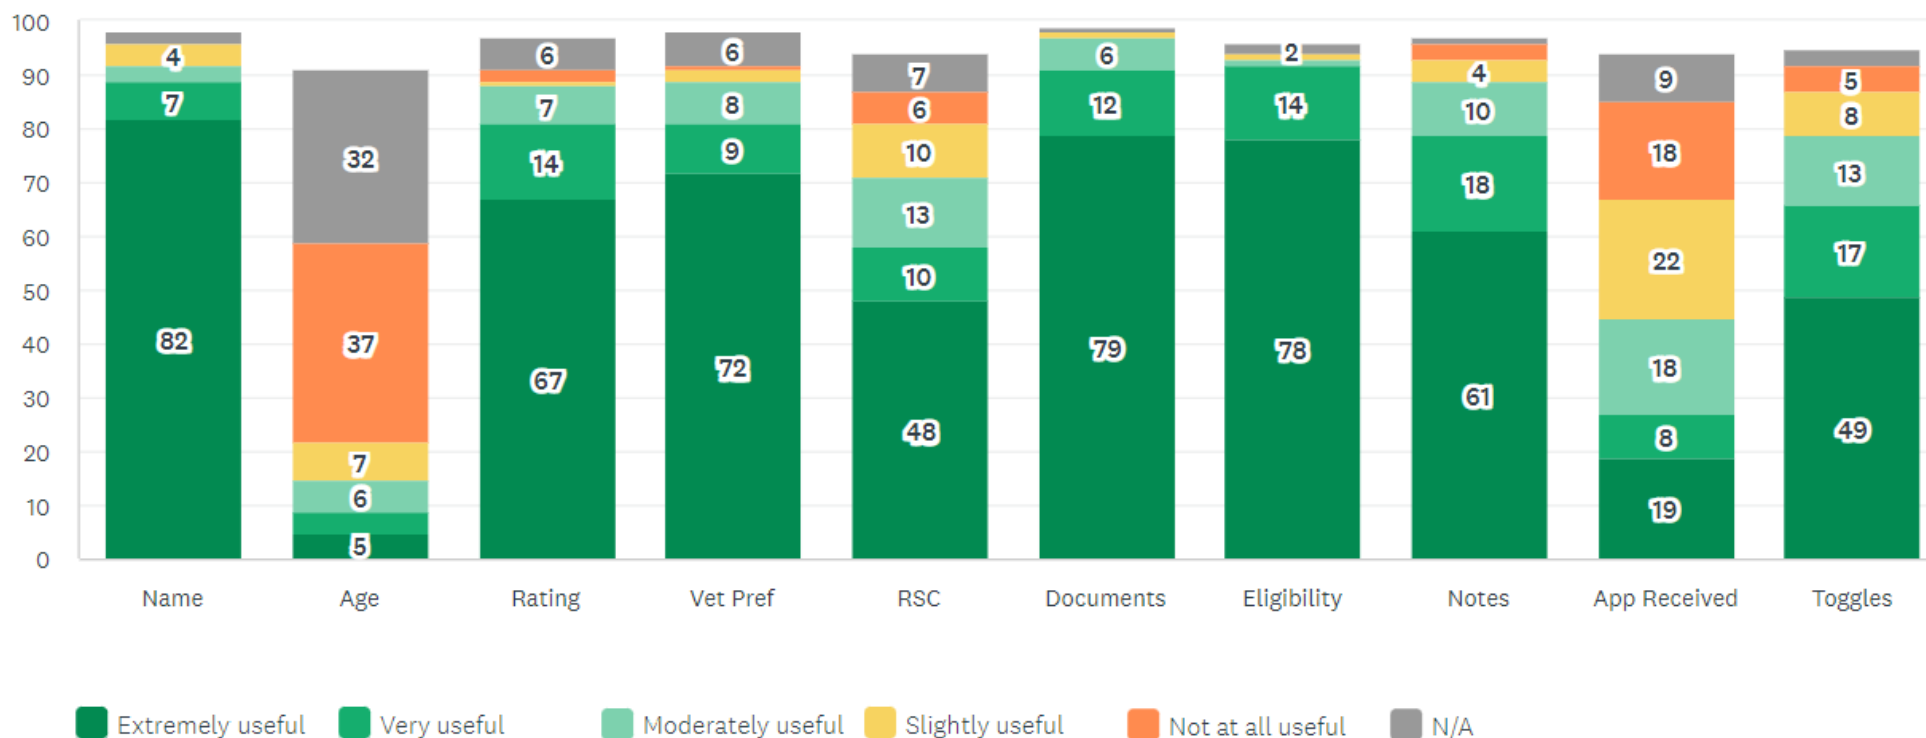

Answered: 102 Skipped: 96

Reviewing Applicants

How useful is it to be able to review or reference the applicant information in each column in the applicant list table?

Answered: 99 Skipped: 99

Reviewing Applicants Comments Summary

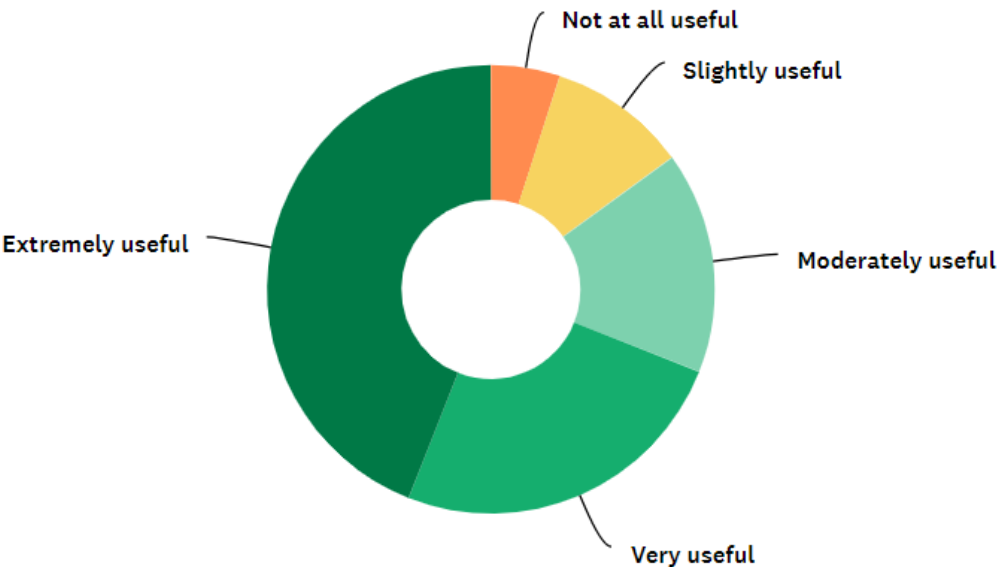

- Feedback and suggestions to improve the process of reviewing applicants included:
 - Better visibility for which applicant is actively being reviewed on a list
 - Adding an indicator if the veterans' preference was adjudicated to something other than what the applicant claimed
 - Automatically navigating to the same page number you were viewing if you move off a list and come back
 - Making it easier to view both Documents and Notes at the same time

Enhancements – Copy Saved List

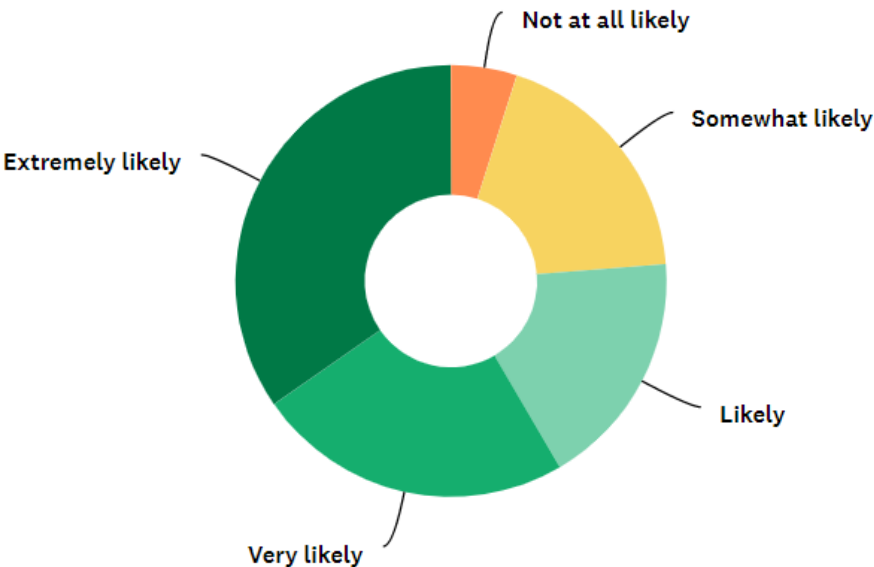

How useful would it be to copy a saved list with all its filters? ...

Answered: 100 Skipped: 98

How likely would you be to use this option if it existed? ...

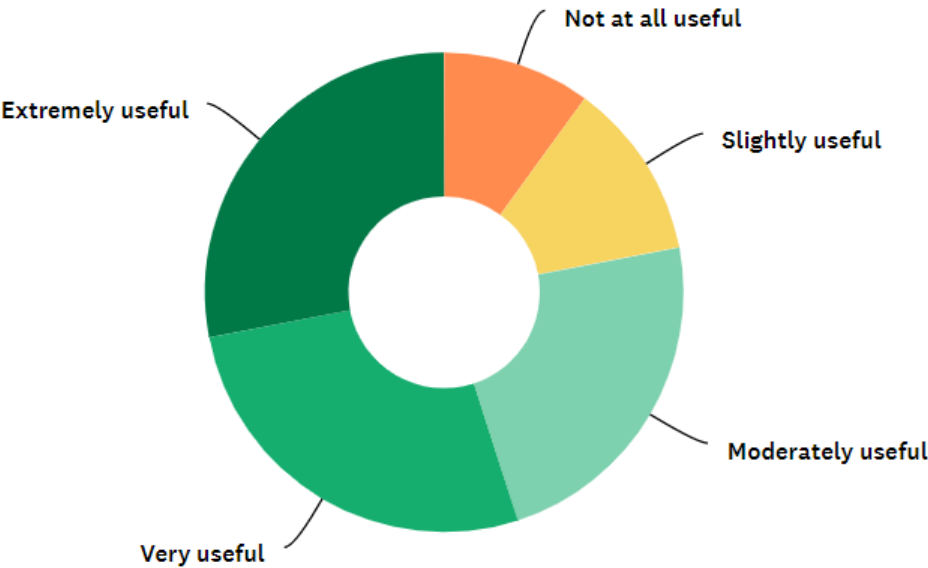

Answered: 101 Skipped: 97

Enhancements – Retaining Saved List

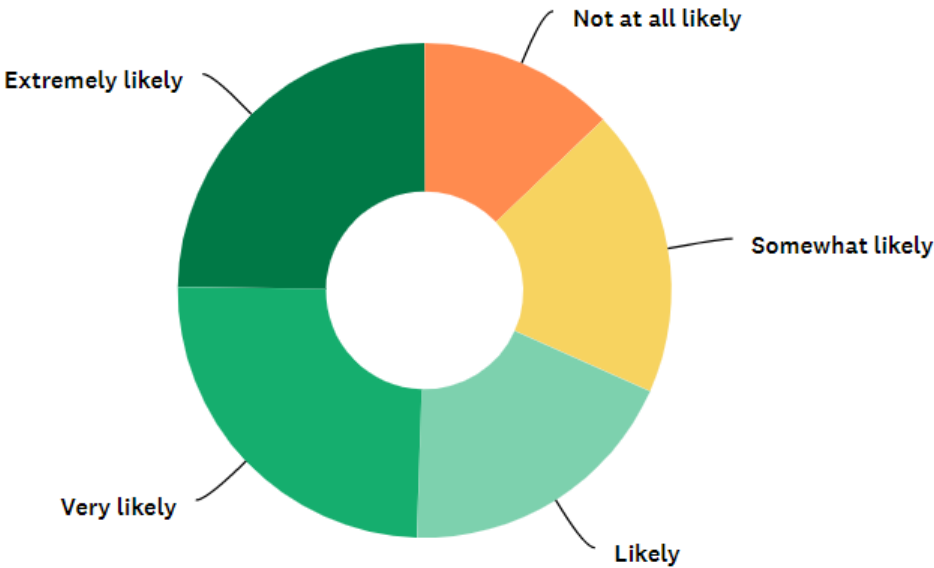

How useful would it be to retain a saved list after you have generated a stored list or issued a certificate?

Answered: 100 Skipped: 98

How likely would you be to use this option if it existed?

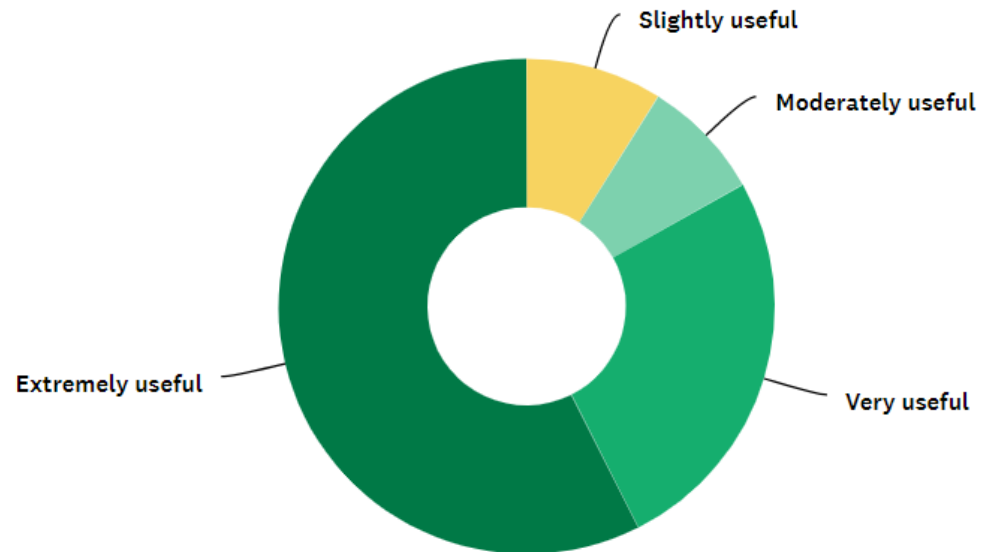

Answered: 101 Skipped: 97

Enhancements – Pagination Configuration

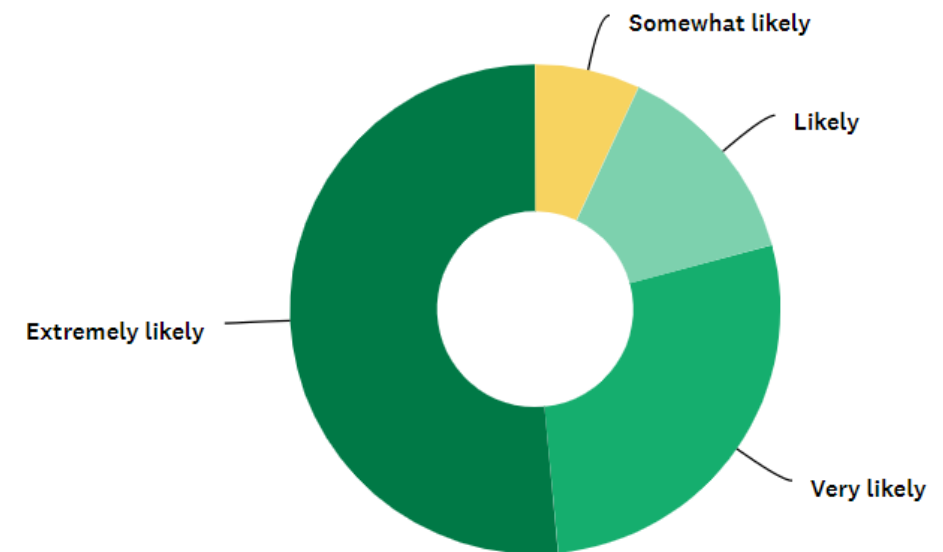

How useful would it be to set how many applicants display per page?

Answered: 101 Skipped: 97

How likely would you be to use this option if it existed?

Answered: 101 Skipped: 97

Enhancements Summary

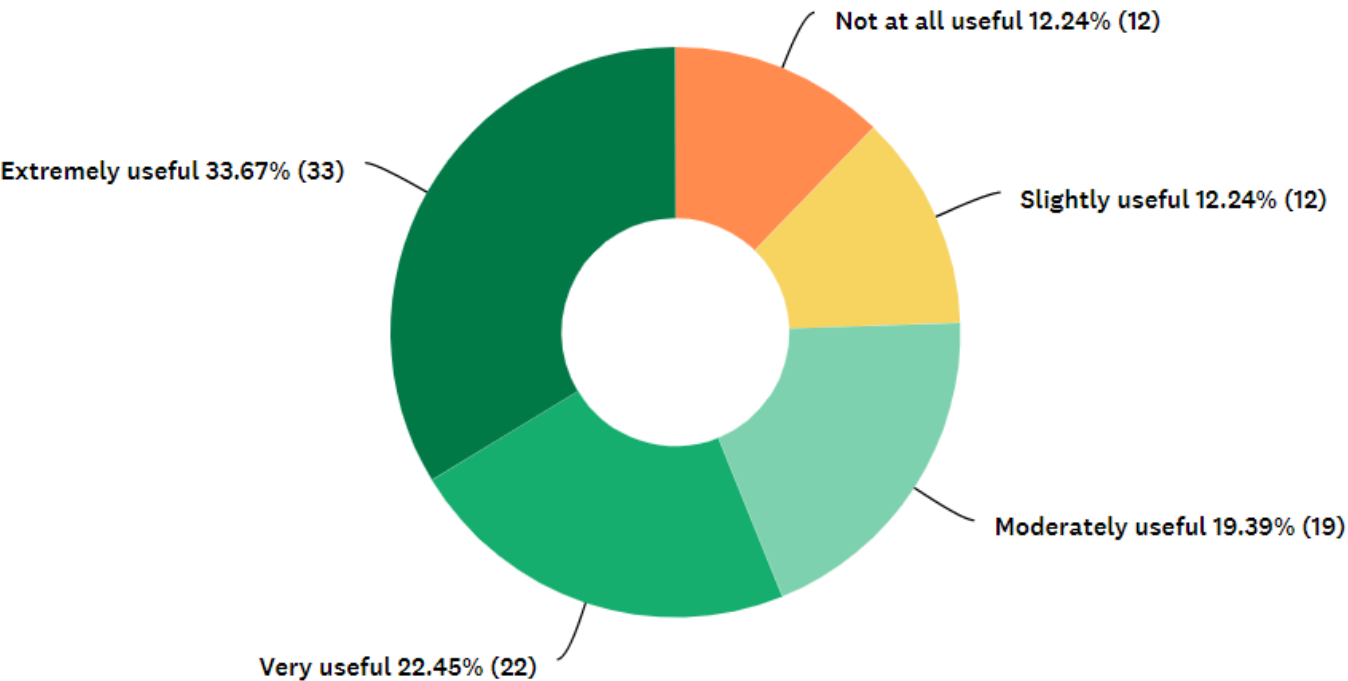

- Feedback confirmed all 3 enhancements would be very positive additions
- Prioritized the pagination configuration development work since it received the highest ratings
 - In the process of development, found “sticky pagination” solution which addressed several other comments regarding scrolling/placement of the pagination menu
- Currently working on developing the other two enhancements (ability to copy a saved list and option to retain a saved list when a stored list is generated/certificate is issued)

Interface Feedback – Ineligible Eligibilities

How useful would it be to display the eligibilities that are Ineligible?

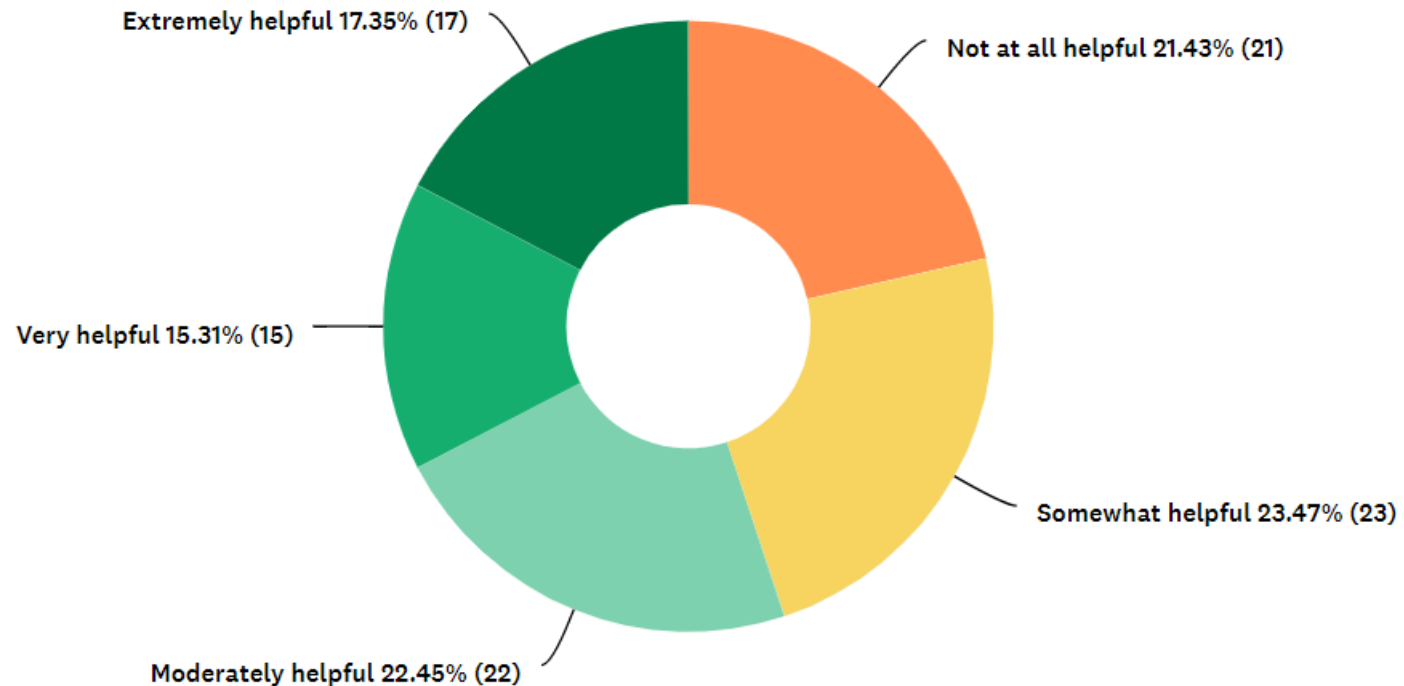

Answered: 98 Skipped: 100

Interface Feedback – Filter Panel

How helpful would it be for the filters panel to close automatically after you've applied filters and saved the list?

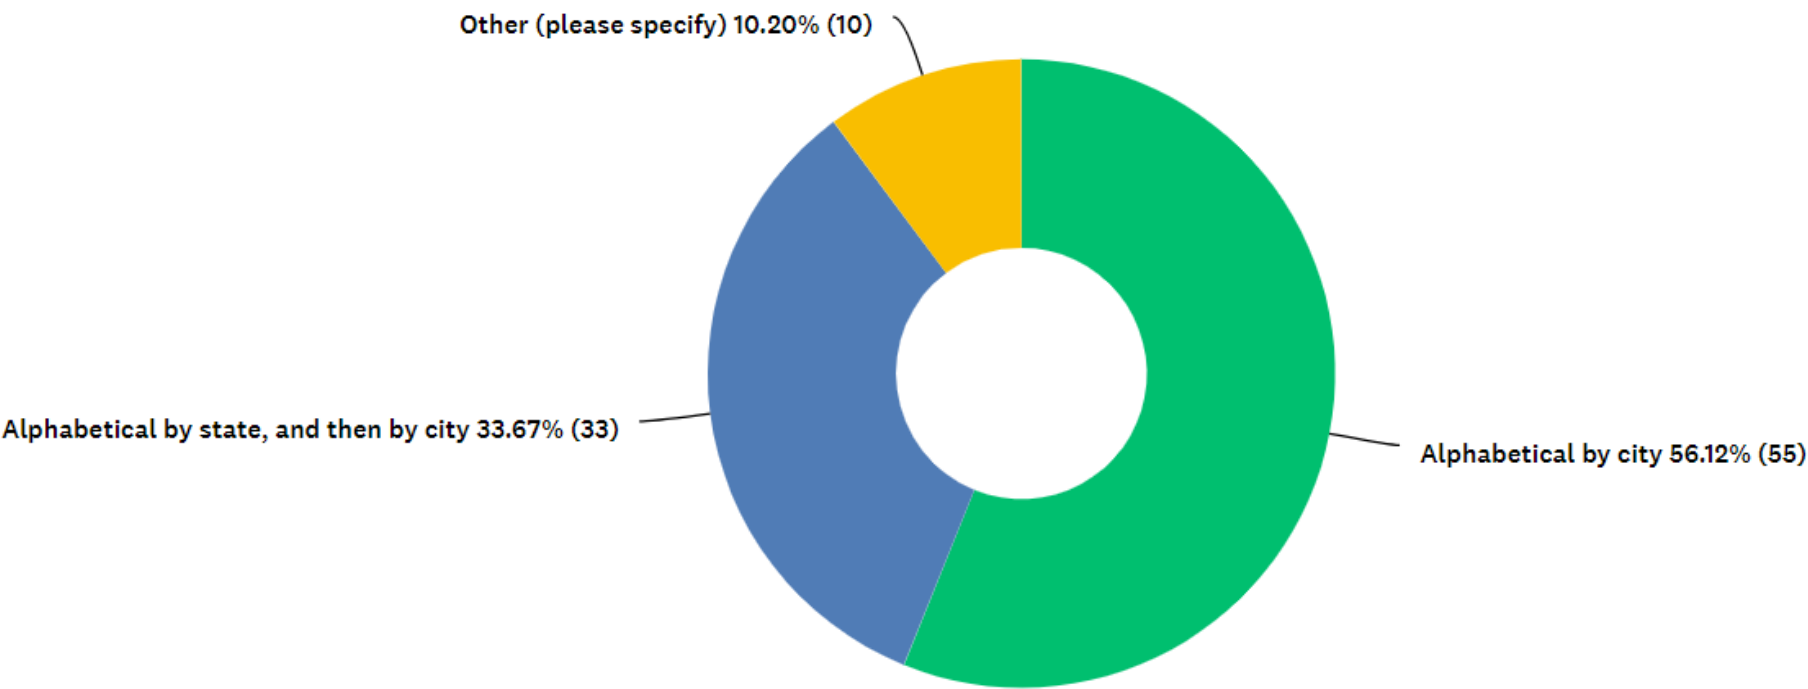

Answered: 98 Skipped: 100

Interface Feedback – Location Filter

How would you prefer the locations be listed in the Locations filter?

Answered: 98 Skipped: 100

Interface Feedback Summary

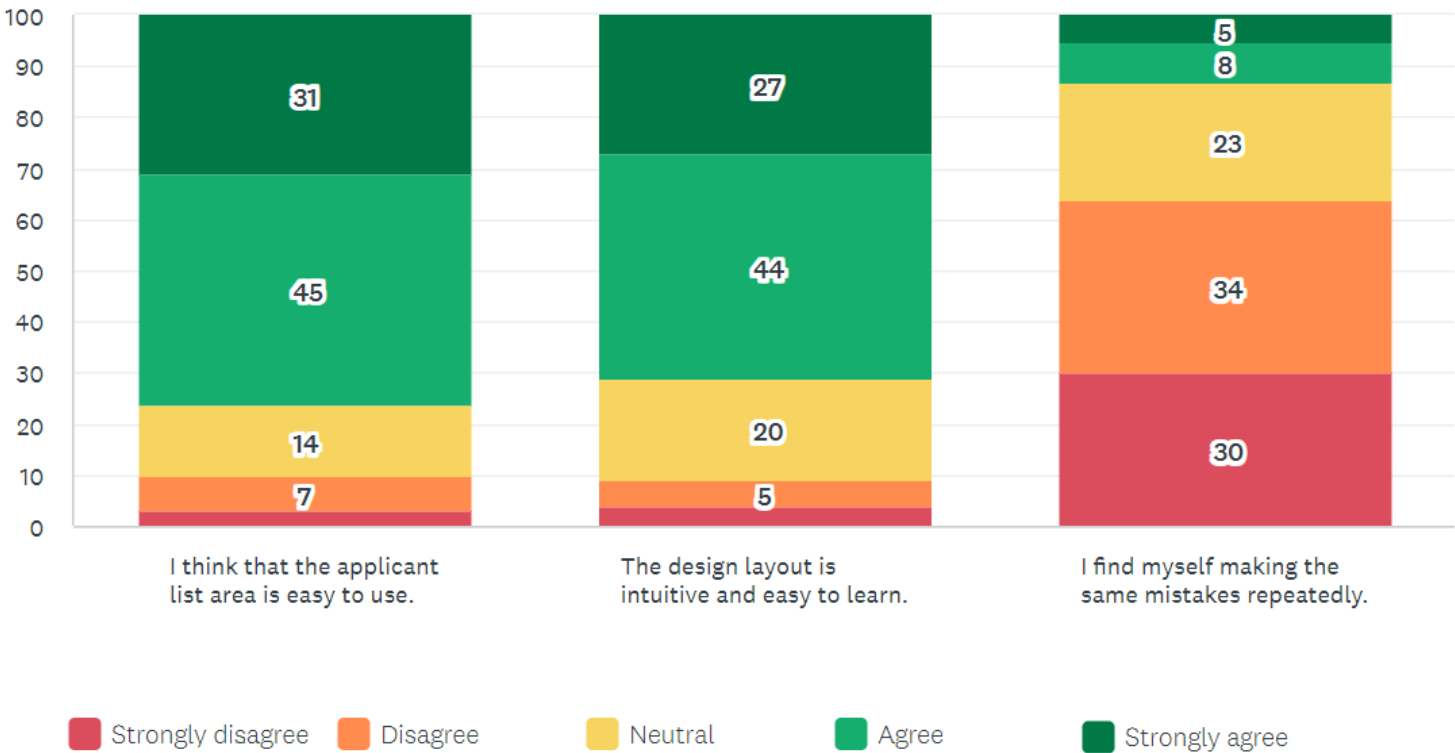

- Confirmed that displaying ineligible eligibilities on an applicant list would be very helpful, and prioritized development work for this.
- Majority of participants would prefer having the filter panel automatically close once filters are applied and the list is saved.
 - The panel would be able to be expanded using the icon to modify filters if needed, but having it closed by default would provide more space on the page for the applicant table.
- Feedback was a bit more mixed on the best order of locations in the locations filter. We're keeping it alphabetical by city for the time being.
